

Our vision is to be the advice centre that best understands and serves the needs of local people. What drives us is to improve lives and communities, and to provide high quality, independent advice services that are trusted, in an environment where people feel welcome.

- General advice on a wide range of issues, including consumer, employment, housing and immigration matters
- Specialist welfare benefits advice including income, health and housing related benefits and tax credits
- Legal representation for Social Security Tribunals
- Specialist debt and money advice including support to assess, prioritise and negotiate repayments
- Guidance and assistance to access resources including signposting and referrals to other agencies.

Working for Ashley and East Bristol

Free, confidential and independent legal advice and advocacy

At St Pauls Advice Centre we offer appointments and drop-in sessions, on a range of advice issues. Drop-in sessions are run on a first-come-first-served basis, so if you arrive before the session starts you will have a better chance of being seen.

Our reception service can deal with all initial and existing client enquiries and provide details of other available services. For more information call 0117 955 2981 or email enquiry@stpaulsAdvice.org.uk
